The CQUniversity Advantage

- Specialist in teaching international students
- Extensive study support
- Multicultural learning environment offering a global education experience
- Fast-track study options available with a three term year (February, July and October)
- Internationally recognised degrees
- Small lectures and tutorials
- Personal attention
- Academic and welfare support services

Note: The table is an example only. The cumulative savings shown are based on full time study. The example assumes that courses are from the appropriate faculty area. Courses from a different Faculty will attract tuition fees at the applicable rate. This may increase/ decrease your tuition fees.

The Vice-Chancellor's scholarship is a general scholarship. Whatever your career aspirations, CQUniversity is committed to helping you on your journey by providing programs of study with engaging and challenging learning experiences.

Am I eligible to apply?

You are eligible for the Vice-Chancellor's scholarship if you meet the following criteria:

- Minimum academic selection criteria as listed;
- Applying to study in an undergraduate or postgraduate program as a new applicant (not previously enrolled in a formal degree program at CQUniversity); and
- Scholarship must be applied for prior to paying any fees.

How do I accept the scholarship offer?

If successful in being offered a Vice-Chancellor's scholarship, you will be sent a:

- Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship Certificate; and
- Letter of Confirmation

You will also receive an official CQUniversity Letter of Offer and a Student Contract. To accept your place at CQUniversity, you must complete and return the signed contract to the University together with your fee payment. This also acts as your acceptance of the scholarship.

Can I appeal the decision?

There is no right of appeal should the applicant be unsuccessful in securing a scholarship.
