

Enjoy free academic, welfare and career support

www.cquni.edu.au

From the time your studies begin until graduation, we are committed to providing you the support required to ensure you excel in your studies and make your time with us stimulating, enjoyable and beneficial.

Academic Support

CQUniversity's Learning Skills Unit (LSU) provides a relaxed friendly environment where you can ask questions and seek academic support when completing assessment tasks and preparing for exams. The LSU is one of the University's best investments. Its sole aim is to provide complete support for those making the transition to study in Australia.

Staffed by part-time and full-time professionals the LSU provides workshops on a multitude of subjects including:

- Developing critical thinking and analytical skills.
- Referencing and plagiarism.
- Oral presentations.
- Academic writing.
- Working with case studies.
- Analysing course-specific assessment tasks.
- Exam preparation
- Time management and study planning.
- Getting the most out of lectures and tutorials oral presentations.
- Group work.

If you would prefer to work on a one-to-one basis, individual appointments can be made at any stage of your studies. LSU also provides a range of printed and online resources to further help you achieve your best academically. All services at LSU are free and completely confidential.

Personal Welfare

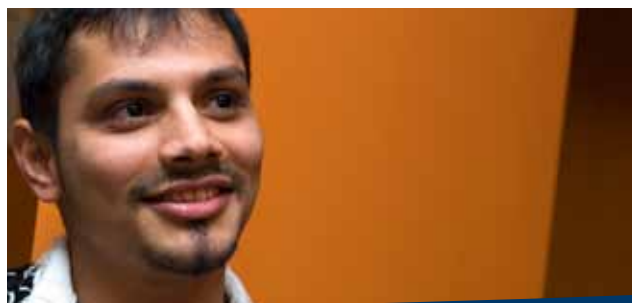

CQUniversity's Student Services promotes a welcoming and exciting environment, with a range of services and social events designed to assist your transition into university life and life in Australia.

The first vital activity for all new students is the New Student Orientation Program run each term before the commencement of classes.

Orientation is essential for all new students and provides you with the opportunity to learn more about living and studying in Australia and to meet fellow students, teachers and other members of campus staff.

Being a student is not all about study and the team at Student Services endeavours to create a social environment for students and staff to mingle among themselves and build lasting relationships that extend

BE WHAT YOU
WANT
TO BE

BE WHAT
YOU
WANT
TO BE

beyond their time at CQUniversity. Participating in social activities, trips to the movies and popular tourist attractions help break down barriers and build a sense of campus community.

Homesickness, loneliness and adjustment difficulties are common issues that any international student adapting to a new environment will face. These issues may have a negative effect on your studies so it's important to address them as soon as possible. Student Services will be your listening ear and work with you on how best to manage and solve them.

Career-oriented Services

The Training, Employment and Career Coaching (TECC) unit assists you with your career development through a range of employment and career-oriented services. These include workshops, individual career coaching, assistance with job applications, information regarding part-time work in your area of study and other services.

TECC provides the following services:

- individual assessments;
- career coaching and planning workshops;
- assistance with preparing a job application;
- opportunities to acquire work experience in field of study;
- involvement in community projects and volunteer positions;
- professional associations information sessions;

- industry related employer information sessions; and
- information regarding part-time, vacation and graduate employment.

TECC facilitate Workshops on-campus.

Topics range from writing effective cover letters and resumes, interview skills and tips and information sessions from professional associations such as CPA (Certified Practising Accountants), CA (Chartered Accountants), NIA (National Institute of Accountants), AIM (Australian Institute of Management) and ACS (Australian Computer Society).

You are also able to use the support and guidance of the TECC office for a further year after your graduation.

CQUniversity students are graduating with an employment rate that is well above the national average.

We encourage you to take advantage of these free services and welcome you to our community.

For further information on CQUniversity services please go to www.cquni.edu.au.

